

OTTAWA

REMEMBER NOVEMBER 2011

Remembrance Day in the Capital is an especially meaningful time for Canadians and one that offers exceptional opportunities and dramatic insight into some of the most moving moments of our collective history for students.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11 - AT THE NATIONAL WAR MEMORIAL

- Students are guests of honour at the annual Remembrance Day ceremony at the National War Memorial, where they will watch the solemn proceedings, courtesy of the NCC, the Royal Canadian Legion, and Veterans Affairs Canada.
- Guided tour of the Capital - Featuring stops at the Peacekeeping Monument and the National Military Cemetery for the Canadian Forces.
- Tour the focal point of Canadian democracy - Located in one of the most beautiful legislative buildings in the world.
- Memorial Chamber - Dedicated to the memory of Canadians who have died in military service.
- The Peace Tower - This Canadian landmark was built in the 1920s to honour the dead of the First World War. Enjoy a spectacular view from the Observation Deck at the top of the Peace Tower.

Additional activities during your stay could include:

- * Canadian War Museum - Many educational programs are available and geared to specific grade levels supporting Ontario and Quebec curriculum
- * Museum of Civilization
- * Currency Museum of the Bank of Canada
- * Supreme Court of Canada
- * Laurier House National Historic Site of Canada
- * Haunted Ghost Walk
